

The licence is issued subject to the following conditions:

1. You shall comply fully with the Code of Ethics for Veterinarians and such other amendments or additions that may come into effect from time to time.
2. If this is your first year of practice in Singapore, you are required to work on a full-time basis for 12 calendar months with one or more existing veterinary clinics in Singapore to gain local experience. Within this period of time, you are also required to attend the veterinary licensing briefing conducted by AVS. Subsequently, you are required to attend the veterinary licensing briefing at least once every 5 years.
3. You shall inform AVS of any change in your residential or practice address within 21 days of the change.
4. Prescribed information of all microchip implantations performed on dogs must be submitted to AVS.

Your licence is renewed subject to the following additional conditions:

1. You shall fulfill the requirements of the Continuing Professional Education (CPE) scheme as prescribed by AVS; and
2. You shall declare to AVS that you have obtained the minimum of 50 CPE points from this scheme during the two years prior to the renewal of your licence.

Failure to comply with any of the conditions of licensing shall be deemed an offence punishable by law.
