

Canberra Primary School has participated actively in various biodiversity awareness programmes under the Community in Nature (CIN) initiative over the years.

‘Every Singaporean a Naturalist’ – this programme by Nature Society made students more aware of the diversity of birds found in our school. Students were excited to spot nests among our ferns!

Students learnt the importance of native plants in our environment and about the Green Wave movement.

