Time	Title	Speaker
11.30am-12pm	Bloop Bloop- The Fishes of Sungei Buloh From fishes that spit water, to fishes that build nests out of bubbles- we are home to an amazing variety of freshwater and saltwater fishes!	Ivan Kwan Manager (Project/Conservation)
12pm-12.30pm	Double Lives As night falls, the ponds and puddles fill with music. Get up close &amp; personal with our frogs &amp; toads learn how to tell some of the common species apart	Ivan Kwan Manager (Project/Conservation)
12.30pm – 1pm	Crocodiles of Sungei Buloh Listen to our very own crocodile ‘hunter’ as he shares stories about Alpha, Whiteface, Tailless, and our other top predators!	Solomon Anthony Volunteer, Sungei Buloh Wetland Reserve
1pm-1.30pm	Lizards of Sungei Buloh Despite what you may have heard, there are no Komodo dragons, iguanas, or even chameleons in Sungei Buloh. So who exactly are our scaly residents?	Yen Kheng Manager (Conservation)
1.30pm-2pm	Snakes Amongst Us What do you do if you see a snake while hiking? Snakes are often feared but very misunderstood. Our resident snake wrangler will change that through this talk!	Khairi K Assistant Officer (Conservation)
2pm-2.30pm	Look! Crabs are on Trees &amp; the Fishes on Land! Trying to survive in the mangroves can be challenging, with ever-changing tides &amp; abundant predators. But life still finds a way, and even gets a little weird... with crabs climbing trees, and fish living on land.	Benjamin Lee Manager (Projects/Conservation)
