FORTHCOMING CONGRESSES.

The fourth International Congress of Tropical Agriculture and Colonial Development will meet in London in 1914. Those wishing to join the congress may enroll themselves as members of the International Association of Tropical Agriculture and Colonial Development, paying one pound per annum, (due on the first of January of each year), to the Secretary, British Section of the International Association, Imperial Institute, London, S.W., and for this they will receive all the publications of the Association and the quarterly Bulletin of the Imperial Institute, in addition to being entitled to take part in the London Congress.

An International Rubber Congress is to be held in Batavia from September 7th to 10th, 1914, in connection with the Batavia Rubber Exhibition (September 8th to October 10th).

The International Botanical Congress, held at Brussels, in May, 1910, decided on the invitation of the Royal Society of London, that the next Meeting should be held in London, and it has now been arranged, that it, the fourth Congress, will take place from May 22nd to May 29th, 1915. The subscription for membership of the Congress is fifteen shillings. Members will receive all the publications. Ladies accompanying members may attend the meetings and excursions of the Congress on payment of ten shillings each. The General Secretary of the Organizing Committee for the coming Congress is Dr. A. B. Rendle, British Museum of Natural History, South Kensington, London, S.W.
